

EAGER

EAGER. You'll run across people who are eager to do all sorts of things this week...

Eager to comment. Eager to critique. Eager to criticize. Eager to argue. Eager to tear down. Eager to gossip. Eager to slander.

In Ephesians 4, disciples of Jesus are told exactly what we ought to be zealous for and eager to do:

"...walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." (Ephesians 4:1-3)

In person, online, with brethren, strangers, and even those who are determined to be our enemies for now, may we walk worthy of that calling and continue to pray for hearts that are EAGER to do so.
